

Charles "Boo" Hagerty

Chief Development Officer/Vice President of Hamot Second Century Foundation

Mr. Hagerty was named the Chief Development Officer and the Vice President of Hamot Second Century Foundation (CDO/VP) in March 2010.

In this position, Boo provides leadership for all philanthropic programs Hamot Health Foundation conducts. As a member of the Hamot executive management team, Boo provides counsel to Hamot Leadership and the Hamot Board on matters relating to philanthropy. He is also responsible for the strategic planning efforts of all Hamot philanthropic programs, including Hamot Medical Center, Regional Health Services, the Hamot Women's Hospital, Kane Community Hospital and other affiliates.

Boo joined Hamot in 2001 as the Vice President of Marketing and Corporate Communications. In 2008, he became the Vice President of Strategic Resources. He has served as acting Chief Development Officer since the start of 2009.

Boo received a bachelor's of science in advertising from West Virginia University. He is a volunteer for many organizations in the Erie community and most recently served as the board chair for Erie's Downtown Improvement District (Downtown Partnership) and ACES.
